Grant Ross Walker

Grant Ross Walker, 74, former Salt Lake City Fire Chief and Utah State Fire Marshal, passed away peacefully, March 24, 1989 in Bountiful.

Born January 20, 1915 in Lindon, Utah to Lawrence Ross and Dahlia Radmall Walker. Grant grew up in a loving home with seven brothers and sisters, and all his life family was of great importance to him. He married Mary Alice Giles, on July 4, 1938 in the Mesa Arizona LDS Temple. She passed away, November 3, 1983. He married Elma Sylvester, January 19, 1985 in the Provo LDS Temple. He was blessed with the love of two good wives. A member of the LDS Church, Grant served in various church capacities during his lifetime, but best honored his membership by his loving and caring ways. He was truly a "People Person" and was always interested in others and loved doing for them. He served an LDS Mission to California, Arizona and Nevada. Grant had a life long affiliation with the fire service, serving on the Salt Lake City Fire Department for 28 years, becoming Fire Chief in 1967. After his retirement as Chief, he served as State Director of Fire Training at Utah Valley Community College for several years. He was appointed Utah State Fire Marshal in 1976. And served in that position until his retirement in 1981. Also active in the Firemen's Relief Association, serving as President for a year. He continued to be actively involved in the Retired Firemen's Association until his death. Grant loved the fire fighting service, but he loved even more the men he worked with and the many friendships formed during those years were very precious to him. Grant felt greatly honored that during his lifetime he was asked to speak at over 100 funerals, most of which were services for his departed fire service friends and their family members. He was proud of his pioneer ancestry, and was a member of the Sons of the Utah Pioneers. He was also a member of the Knights of Pythias, a civic organization.

He is survived by his wife, Elma, a daughter and son-in-law, Craig B. and Marilyn Lavender, a son and daughter-in-law, James R. and Patricia Walker, grandchildren, Reuel and Allison Bell, Shawn and Diane Lavender, Jason Walker, Kyle and Quinn Lavender, one special sweet great-granddaughter, Ashlee Bell, brothers, Leon, Robert and Garth, sisters, Mrs. Fay (Grace) Fielding, Mrs. Jennie Murdoch, Mrs. Aaron (Lorayn) Stoddard, and Mrs. Phil (Utahna) Ballard, many nieces and nephews.

For friends who may wish to make a contribution in Grant's memory, and based up on his service in the Fire Department, the family suggests donations to the Intermountain Burn Center at the University of Utah Hospital.

Funeral services, Wednesday, March 29, 1989, 12 noon, Bountiful 21st LDS Ward, 650 South 200 East. Friends may call Tuesday evening from 6-8 p.m. at Russon Brothers Salt Lake Mortuary, 255 South 200 East, and at the church on Wednesday, 10-11:45 a.m. Interment, Bountiful City Cemetery. T3/26 T3/28
